What a Card!

So it was my best bud D's birthday yesterday and, being the procrastinator with a 1-year-old that I am, I couldn't get my butt to a store to pick her up a real card. So I was forced to surf the web looking for an appropriate E-card to send her. I'm not a paid member to any of those sites, I usually prefer the snail mail way of sending cards, but in my web travels I found the coolest, FREE, greeting card site.

It's called MushyGushy.com. Cute name, right? The thing that is so different about this site is that you can cut a head out of any picture you have on your computer (or find on the Internet) and paste it into an animated card. So, for instance, I sent Donna a birthday wish with my smiling, dancing face on it. Then I went crazy and sent my hubby an "I love you" card with our baby's head, plus one to my parents and in-laws. But you could upload a photo of, say, Josh Hartnett and send it to your friend who is all about him.

If you're like me and can barely find time to take a shower during the day, much less get to the store in time to get a birthday/anniversary/I love you card on time, check out this ingenious site and send your head to someone you love.
